- Citrimax (Garcinia cambogia extract): Hydroxycitric acid (HCA), is a citric acid byproduct and the main active ingredient in Garcinia cambogia extract. HCA may block fat and assist important metabolic enzymes. This is one reason why Garcinia cambogia extract is a successful weight management supplement. In a 4-week randomized, double-blind, placebo-controlled trial, 150 obese patients were treated with a dietary supplement Garcinia cambogia extract 55 mg, chitosan 240 mg, and chrome 19 mg, together with a weight reduction regimen. Treatment groups administered the dietary supplement showed statistically significant dose-related reductions in total weight and LDL cholesterol and triglycerides, and improvement in high density lipoprotein cholesterol. A note from President, Dr. J.J. Levine, D.C.:

We have sold 40 million Power Pops to date. Why? Because they work. We supply a constant demand by making new batches of each flavor every week. The synergy of all Power Pop ingredients (including B vitamins) coupled with drinking water as you consume the pops is where you gain the full benefit. Our CEO and formulation team took 10 tries and over 1 million dollars to create a triple patented formula that produces results. Power Pops were not originally sold via direct sales, but in a mall kiosk. The mall asked our CEO to leave because sales were creating too large of a traffic jam and thus a fire hazard for the mall. Sales continue to rise. USA weight loss clinics place $8,000.00 recurring monthly orders, for their clients. When taken as directed Power Pops are a completely safe product, proven to assist in managing weight, increasing energy, suppressing appetite and losing fat. The record-breaking media exposure and sales of this 1 product is responsible for the funding and creation of Essante' Organics, The Organic Living Company.
